Jack Kolosky

Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer
H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute

Mr. Kolosky joined H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute in November 1999, and currently serves as the Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer. In that role, he provides oversight of the Operations, Information Technology and Financial areas of the Cancer Center, as well as the Affiliate and International programs. His strategic leadership is critical to the mission and vision of the Cancer Center.

Mr. Kolosky has more than 30 years of healthcare leadership experience, including 12 years in multiple hospital environments, clinic settings and academic, tertiary healthcare delivery systems. Prior to coming to Moffitt, he served as the Chief Financial Officer for the Georgetown University Medical Center in Washington, D.C., and as the Associate Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, Texas.

Mr. Kolosky received his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from Western Illinois University and an MBA in Finance from Drake University. He holds a Certificate from the Harvard University School of Public Health and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Mr. Kolosky is a Fellow in the Healthcare Financial Management Association, a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives, and is active in a number of other professional organizations. He serves on the board of directors of the Tampa Bay Partnership and HPC Hospice. He previously served on the board of the Nevada Cancer Institute.
